

Owek. Nuwa Wamala Nyanzi, a former State Minister of Internal Affairs and the Arts in Buganda Kingdom, is a culturalist; a visual arts practitioner and consultant, an art collector, dealer and promoter, actor, poet, creative writer, strategic plan facilitator, public speaker, art psycho-social therapist, experienced visual arts, and design trainer, talk show host/moderator as well as a social and cultural commentator.

Nyanzi's art has often been described as the art that touches the heart by both art critics and collectors alike.

In 1994 he founded and runs Nyanzi Art Studio, which researches, documents, produces, sells, and promotes contemporary and antique Ugandan art and crafts and others from the Great Lakes region. Shop no 30 in NACCAU Arts and Crafts village next to the National Theatre on plot 4/6 Dewinton road, Kampala.

Website: www.nnyanziart.com presentations.